Reynier (or Rynard) Quackenbush probably moved to Canada about 1792. On 28 Dec. 1803, he received a grant of 200 acres of land on Lot 3, Concession 3, currently in North Fredericksburgh Township, Lennox and Addington County, Ontario. The 1808 Assessment Roll of Fredericksburgh (Township) lists a Rennard Quackenbush with 65 acres of uncultivated land, 45 acres of cultivated land, a log house, three horses, nine cows and three swine. Rynard purchased the west half of Lot 15, Concession 4, North Fredericksburgh Township on 5 Jan. 1811. His will was proved in 1814 with letters of administration granted to Mary Quackenbush, executrix.

FIFTH GENERATION

Peter and Maria Quackenbush probably moved to Canada soon after their daughter Catheryna was baptized at the Kakiat Reformed Dutch Church in Rockland County, New York, in 1795. There is no record in New York of the baptism of their son Andrew, born about 1798. On 25 Feb. 1804, Peter, along with his brother Isaac, was granted 200 acres of land on Lot 10 of the Third Concession, Fredericksburgh Township, Lennox and Addington County, Ontario. The 1808 Assessment Roll of Fredericksburgh lists Peter with 160 uncultivated acres, 40 cultivated acres, a square timber house, two horses, eight cows and three swine. Peter's will was proved in 1814 with letters of administration granted to Mary Quackenbush, executrix. There is some evidence to suggest that Mary moved to Hillier Township, Prince Edward County, Ontario, to be with her son Rynard, who had settled there about 1822. Her name is on a stone in Burr's Old United Empire Loyalist Burying Ground, Hillier Township. Although the inscription gives Peter's date of death as 1830, this may actually be his widow's death date.

The records of the Kakiat Reformed Dutch Church, Rockland County, New York, indicate that "Isaac Q'bos and Cornelius Pules, his wife" were received into membership on 13 Apr. 1803. They must have moved to Canada shortly after the baptism of their daughter Catharina there on 30 Oct. 1803, as on 25 Feb. 1804, Isaac, along with his brother Peter, was granted 200 acres of land on Lot 10, Third Concession, Fredericksburgh Township, Lennox and Addington County, Ontario. Isaac bought Lot 76, Fourth Concession, Ameliasburgh Township of Prince Edward County, Ontario, on 8 Mar. 1824. He probably moved there about 1822, as in that year his brother Peter settled in nearby Hillier Township. Also, on May 15th of that year, Isaac's son Isaac, Jr. was listed in the nominal returns of the 2nd Regiment of the Prince Edward Militia. On 26 Nov. 1833, Isaac sold 50 acres of his Ameliasburgh Township farm to William Massey. In Isaac's will dated 14 Dec. 1830, mention is made of his wife Cornelia, sons Isaac and Andrew, and daughter Katherine. The will was registered in the Ameliasburgh Township land records on 28 June 1836.
